MISSION OF SCOUTING

The mission of Scouting America is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law.

THE SCOUT OATH

On my honor I will do my best
To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

THE SCOUT LAW

A Scout is:

Trustworthy	Obedient
Loyal	Cheerful
Helpful	Thrifty
Friendly	Brave
Courteous	Clean
Kind	Reverent

The Aims of Scouting are:

Character, Citizenship, Personal Fitness, and Leadership

BENEFITS OF SCOUTING

BENEFITS OF SCOUTING

CHANGE IN CHARACTER

during the course of the 3-year study:

KEY FINDINGS:

The more time kids spend in Scouting, the better the outcomes in character development

Those who attend meetings regularly report higher outcomes virtually across the board when compared to Scouts with lower attendance

Scouts are more likely to embrace positive social values than non-Scouts

Scouts who are more engaged in the program report higher outcomes in nearly every category

With fun and discovery at every turn, Scouting makes the most of right now. But what's more, it builds positive character and provides young people a foundation they can stand on to embrace opportunity, overcome obstacles, and make new discoveries.

SCOUTING WORKS.

BACH HO MISSION

Bach Hồ Troop is committed to:

1. Nurture and preserve Vietnamese culture, traditions, and values among its Scout members while embracing the principles and ideals of Scouting.
2. Connect with their Vietnamese heritage through cultural activities, community engagement, and meaningful traditions.
3. Developing leadership skills, confidence, responsibility, teamwork, and a strong sense of service.

METHODS OF SCOUTING

METHODS OF SCOUTING

LIVING THE IDEALS

Cub Scouting's values are embedded in the Scout Oath, the Scout Law, the Cub Scout motto, and the Cub Scout sign, handshake, and salute. These practices help establish and reinforce the program's values in Scouts and the leaders who guide them.

BELONGING TO A DEN

The den is ideally a group of six to eight children who are in the same grade. It is the place where Cub Scouting starts. In the den, Cub Scouts develop new skills and interests, practice sportsmanship and good citizenship, and learn to do their best, not just for themselves but for the den as well.

ADVANCEMENT

Recognition is important to everyone. The advancement plan provides fun for the Scouts, gives them a sense of personal achievement as they earn badges, and strengthens family understanding as adult family members and their den leader work with them on advancement projects.

METHODS OF SCOUTING

FAMILY INVOLVEMENT

Whether a Cub Scout lives with two parents or one, a foster family, or other relatives, their family is an important part of Cub Scouting. Parents and adult family members provide leadership and support for Cub Scouting and help ensure that Scouts have a good experience in the program.

ACTIVITIES

Cub Scouts participate in a huge array of activities, including games, projects, skits, stunts, songs, outdoor activities, trips, and service projects. Besides being fun, these activities offer opportunities for growth, achievement, and family involvement.

SERVING THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Cub Scouting focuses on the home and neighborhood. It helps Scouts strengthen connections to their local communities, which in turn supports their growth and development.

UNIFORM

Cub Scout uniforms serve a dual purpose, demonstrating that a Scout is part of a team and showing individual achievement (Scouts wear the badges they've earned). Wearing the uniform to meetings and activities also encourages a neat appearance, and good behavior.

PARENTS'S ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. For the scouts to advance, parents need to involve and work with them.
2. Parents are required to volunteer to help with activities

INVITATION FROM BACH HO TO LEADERS & PARENTS

Bach Ho needs a strong and committed team for it to last to serve the community, particularly the Vietnamese community. We won't be able to have this strong team unless every volunteer participates in building this team.
